Zurich airport signs shareholder agreement with UP govt

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, July 17

THE ZURICH AIRPORT International on Saturday signed a shareholder agreement with the Uttar Pradesh government's entity NIAL in Lucknow for the development of the Noida International Airport, a statement said.

Arun Vir Singh, CEO, Noida International Airport (NIAL), and Christoph Schnellmann, CEO, Yamuna International Airport (YIAPL), signed the agreement in the presence Uttar Pradesh chief minister Yogi Adityanath and senior officials of the UP government, the Zurich Airport International's statement said.

YIAPL is a 100% subsidiary of Zurich Airport International and has been incorporated to develop the Noida International Airport in Jewar, which is around 70 km from the main Delhi region.

According to the agreement, NIAL will hold one golden share in YIAPL and the right to nominate two directors to the board.

"The directors to be added to the board will be Arun Vir Singh, CEO, NIAL, and Vishak Iyer, director, civil aviation, Pradesh," it added.

The shareholder agreement also underpins the UP government's support to "establish and continuously improve surface access to the airport, establish and expand utilities required to run the airport (water, electricity, waste water), maintain law and order, including monitoring at the airport, and grant the necessary clearances to build and operate the airport".

"The signing of the shareholder agreement is the next step in the direction of progress for the state. The Noida International Airport will be the benchmark for a modern, world-class airport in India," a statement quoted Adityanath as saying.

"It will accelerate the development of industrial infrastructure, boost tourism, promote exports, ease air traffic and lead to creation of more jobs in the state. It will generate multi-dimensional Pradesh," he added.

Last month, the YIAPL construction of the Noida airport, estimated to cost ₹29,560 crore.

In December 2020, it had submitted the master plan for the first phase of construction to the UP government and selected a fourcompany consortium to design the passenger terminal for the greenfield airport in Jewar.

The Zurich Airport International had outbid Delhi International Airport (DIAL), Adani Enterprises and Anchorage Infrastructure Investments Holdings to win the 40-year concession for the Noida airport in November 2019. The Zurich Airport International is itself a 100% subsidiary of Flughafen Zurich AG, a listed company that operates the Zurich airport. Zurich Airport International AG (ZAIA) CEO Daniel Bircher said, "We are pleased to sign the shareholder agreement, which strengthens the partnership between ZAIA and NIAL. The Noida International Airport will be an engine of economic growth for India and Uttar Pradesh, stimulating residential and industrial activities in the catchment area as well as the development of cargo and logistics cluster in the NCR region. "This agreement reaffirms UP government's Officials of the Uttar commitment to provide road Pradesh government and the and rail connectivity along with Government of Uttar progress, leading to economic Swiss company had signed a othervarious utilities and to endevelopment in Uttar concession agreement on Oc- sure safety and security for the tober 7, 2020, to begin the upcoming Noida International Airport," he said.
